

Harvey R. Durham Outstanding Freshman
Advocate Award
Appalachian State University
(Nomination Form)

The Harvey R. Durham Outstanding Freshman Advocate Award honors one full-time Appalachian State University employee each year who has contributed significantly to improving the freshman experience on our campus. Faculty, staff, and administrators, with sustained contributions to the freshmen experience over at least a three year period, are eligible.

Consider persons who have demonstrated extraordinary personal commitment to freshmen, have provided effective classroom instruction in freshman classes, shown dedication to programs that have supported and served freshmen, or have repeatedly exhibited exceptional individual commitment to freshman success.

To nominate a person for this award, please submit:

- The completed nomination form;
- A supporting narrative, not to exceed five pages, that provides evidence of the nominee's advocacy efforts on behalf of freshmen; and
- Up to two supporting letters of nomination (optional).
